

The Mark Province of Kent

Introduces

The Provincial Lecture for 2018

Entitled

Freemasonry in the Great War

Given by W. Bro Dr John Reuther

on

Friday 5th October 2018

The lecture will be given at the Gillingham Masonic Centre, Franklin Road, Gillingham, ME7 4DG. This event will be hosted at a special meeting of the St Andrews Mark Lodge No 237. The lodge will be tyled at 6pm and dinner will be served 7.45pm. All Mark Master Masons are invited to attend.

The Lodge will receive a talk from the renowned Masonic scholar and author, W. Bro Dr John Reuther, and will be entitled "Freemasonry in the Great War". John is a Masonic speaker of many years standing and places will be limited so please, book early to avoid disappointment.

Cost of attending the meeting is £25 for dining guests (inclusive of wine and or a soft drink), £5 for non-dining guests.

Lodges and individuals are invited to make donations towards the Kent Mark 2020 Festival. All donations will be credited to the Lodge or the individual making the donation.

All proceeds of the evening will go towards the Kent Mark 2020 Festival!

It is anticipated that this will be a heavily subscribed meeting. Don't miss out, please use the booking form below to book in yourselves and your guests in good time!

The menu for the meeting will be as follows. To start: Melon with Parma ham, followed by Chicken Chasseur and seasonal vegetables, rounded off with a Fruit cocktail and ice cream. Alternative dietary requirements will be catered for. Please use the booking form below.
